

eWaken buys Interim Technologies (Pvt) India Ltd.

Chicago, June 20th, 2002, eWaken Technology, Inc. announced today that it has decided to buy Chennai, India based Interim Technologies (PVT) India LTD. (<http://www.interimglobal.com/>)

“Given the shift in the US market towards focusing on ‘Core’ business processes and outsourcing internal customer and technical support functions to reduce long-term cost, leveraging offshore operations, we feel this is a strategic move to assist our clients needs”, said Jerry Freeman, Chairman & CEO, eWaken Technology, Inc. commenting on the deal.

This acquisition broadens eWaken's offerings and expands their Offshore development capabilities, Call centers, web development expertise, branding, development of walk-throughs and kiosks, and a true 24x7 support center to accommodate all their clients needs.
